- The Russians are building a high-capacity short-wave sending apparatus on the first hill porth of lake Hanor, at Lillarired.
- 2. A Soviet antiaircraft unit has taken position in the Lake Hazor area. It consists of three AA batteries, each with four 85 mm. guns.
- 3. A high Soviet command has been established in the new underground bunker at Lake Hamor, consisting of officers and noncommissioned officers of about 450 in number. The whole area is carefully guarded. When the Russians go on leave in Miskolc they wear civilian clothes and Hungerians in the town are informed that they are technical advisers and directors of the combines at Diésgyor and
- There have been no Soviet armored troops in Miskole since the fall of 1951. The barracks they occupied has been taken over by the heavy weapons training battalion of the Hungarian AVH.
- 5. The heavy-duty telephone cable from Budapest to Miskolo has been prolonged along the valley of the Hernéd into Czechoslovakia. Word in progress between Miskole and Cop is being carried on by a Soviet communications battalion, which is stationed in Nyiregyháza.
